

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

ALBERT ADAMS,

Appellant,

v.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA,

Appellee.

No. 14-7092

CONSENT MOTION TO WITHDRAW BRIEF AND FILE CORRECTED BRIEF

1. Appellant seeks the Court's consent to withdraw his brief and file a corrected brief. The corrected brief will contain no substantive changes. The references to the Joint Appendix in Appellant's present brief will instead be replaced with specific references to the record.
2. Appellant's brief presently refers to the "JA" for joint appendix, with blanks, because the parties have not yet decided upon an appendix. Appellant's counsel chose to do, this after consulting with Appellant's counsel's printer.
3. Appellant's counsel had done this once before, in a case before this Court, at the suggestion of the other party, although Appellant's counsel now recalls that the other side had prepared a tentative joint appendix at the time.

Appellant's counsel had remembered , while preparing the brief, only that the "JA" format had been acceptable to this Court at the time.

4. Appellant's counsel asks that he be allowed until November 21, 2014, to make these changes, although he hopes to complete the corrected brief by today or tomorrow.
5. Appellant's counsel has consulted with the Appellee's counsel, Holly Johnson, Esq., and Ms. Johnson has graciously agreed to the withdrawal of the brief, to the filing of a corrected brief, and to the November 21, 2014 deadline.
6. Appellant's counsel apologizes to the Court and to Appellee's counsel for any inconvenience.
7. Again, there will be no substantive changes in the brief.
8. Hence, for the aforesaid reasons, Appellant's Motion seeking the Court's leave to withdraw his brief, and to file a corrected brief, should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
James L. Fuchs, Bar #17092
